See

- Old Dutch Church of Sleepy Hollow and Old Dutch Burying Ground, 430 N Broadway, www.olddutchburyingground.org. The church has been in continuous use since around 1690, except for a few years during the American Revolution.

Free guided tours of the burying ground from Memorial Day Weekend through the end of October, Sundays at 2PM. Self-guided tour booklet Tales of the Old Dutch Burying Ground is sold at the Philipsburg Manor museum shop in Sleepy Hollow. The churchyard is the spot where Ichabod Crane sought sanctuary from the Headless Horseman in Washington Irving's "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." Located at the south end of Sleepy Hollow Cemetery across Broadway from Philipsburg Manor.

- Pay a visit to Washington Irving, Andrew Carnegie, Walter Chrysler, William Rockefeller, and Elizabeth Arden in their final abodes in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, 540 N Broadway, 914-631-0081, www.sleepyhollowcemetery.org. Maps are available at the cemetery office and at the cemetery's south gate, which is adjacent to the Old Dutch Church.

- Philipsburg Manor, 381 N Broadway, Sleepy Hollow, 914-631-3992. Historic Dutch manor and mill are restored to their appearance in the late 17th/early 18th century. In "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," Ichabod Crane saunters beside the manor's millpond with the "country damsels" of the neighborhood. This is also the departure point for tours of Kykuit.

- Kykuit, the Rockefeller mansion in the hamlet of Pocantico Hills on the outskirts of Sleepy Hollow. Guided tours of the house and its gardens and art galleries are available through Historic Hudson Valley. Open mid May through the beginning of November, weekdays 10AM-3PM, weekends 10AM-4PM, closed Tuesdays. Adults $22, seniors $20, children under 17 $19 (no children under age 10), <http://hudsonvalley.org/kykuit/index.htm>. All Kykuit tours depart from Philipsburg Manor, 381 N Broadway.
